

Rödl & Partner

OUR PARTNERS IN BRAZIL

Rödl & Partner Brazil is the leading German desk professional services firm in Brazil with offices in:

- ✓ São Paulo
- ✓ Curitiba
- ✓ Campinas

The experienced interdisciplinary team consisting of consultants, certified accountants and auditors provides German quality services in particular for German and European companies in all sectors on questions concerning auditing and audit-related services, business process outsourcing (financial accounting) and tax and management consulting.

Brazil is by far the most important trading partner and investment location for German companies in Latin America. With continental dimensions and exceptional reserves of raw materials, the country today is an integral part of international company operations.

- ✓ In all offices Brazilian and German experts work in teams and are therefore able to offer a comprehensive range of consulting services and support in all the relevant languages (German, English, Spanish and Portuguese).
- ✓ In addition, Rödl & Partner Brazil has a leading interdisciplinary German desk competence centre for transaction consulting and matters relating to South America.

